crop activity in the area of intended employment (MSA) than the hourly rate specified herein, only if the new higher prevailing wage survey is known before the acceptance letter is issued by DOL. In the event the DOL promulgates a new wage rate, for any MSA covered by this employment certification, during the recruitment or work contract period which is higher or lower than the new wage rate herein, at the discretion of the employer, lower wage rate, will become the guarantee.

A). The employer will make the following deductions from the Worker's wages: FICA taxes, State (if applicable), Federal Income tax as required by law. Cash advances will be deducted in full from the worker's next regular paycheck with the employee's written consent. If the employer does not deduct the advances in full from the next regular paycheck, then thereafter the employer will only deduct, with the employees written consent, up to 10% of the gross wage each pay period until fully paid off. Overpayments will be deducted in full from the workers next regular paycheck with the employees written consent. Repayment of loans made to employees at interest rates less than prime will be deducted from wages, with the employee's written consent, at no more than 10% of the employee's gross wage each pay period until fully paid off. FICA, State and Federal taxes will not be deducted from those worker's wages that are working under a temporary, agricultural visa.

B). Employers guarantee to offer employment for the hourly equivalent of 3/4 of the workdays of the total specified period during which the work contract and all amendments thereof are in effect, beginning with the first workday after the workers' arrival at the assigned Grower's farm, ready, willing, able, and eligible to work and ending on the expiration date specified in the work contract and all extensions thereof or upon the termination of this employment as provided below. For purposes of this guarantee, a "workday" consists of seven hours Monday-Friday and five hours on Saturday. The worker is not required to work on his Sabbath or on federal holidays which are New Year's Day, January 1; Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday, the third Monday in January; Presidents Day, the third Monday in February; Memorial Day, the last Monday in May; Independence Day, July 4; Labor Day, the first Monday in September; Columbus Day, the second Monday in October; Veteran's Day, November 11; Thanksgiving Day, the fourth Thursday in November; and Christmas Day, December 25. On certain of these days, work may be available. If the worker at the conclusion of his work agreement has been afforded less employment opportunity than required under this provision, the worker will be paid at his average hourly rate for the hours, in addition to those actually offered, up to the hourly equivalent of the guaranteed number of days. In determining whether the guarantee of employment has been met, any hours, which the Worker fails to work during a workday when the Employer offers him the opportunity to work, and all hours of work actually performed shall be counted toward meeting this guarantee. In addition the employer may count hours of work offered all hours for which work was offered and not worked which do not exceed a total of hours worked and hours offered but not worked of the normal work hour. The guarantee described in this paragraph shall not apply if the worker voluntarily abandons this employment before the end of the contract period or in the event the worker is terminated for a lawful job-related reason. The guarantee described in this paragraph shall not apply to an H-2A alien worker who is terminated because of the employer's compliance with the requirement to employ all qualified eligible US workers who apply during the first 30 days of the employment period in accordance with the rule at 20 CFR 655.102(f)(3)(i), percent of the contract period.

C). This employment guarantee shall be terminated before the end of the Period of Employment if the services of the workers are no longer required for reasons beyond the control of the Employer due to fire, frost, flood, drought, hail, other Act of God which makes fulfillment of this contract impossible. In such cases, the employer will make efforts to transfer worker to other comparable employment acceptable to worker. If such transfer is not effective, workers will be returned at Employer's expense to the place from which Worker, without intervening employment, came to work for employer. In the event of such termination, the 3/4-guarantee period ends on the date of termination. The guarantee shall be void from the beginning should the Worker voluntarily abandon this employment before the end of the contract period or in the event the Worker is terminated for lawful job-related reason.

D). The payroll period shall be weekly. Workers will be paid weekly.

E). Employer will provide a worker referred through the SWA Interstate System forty (40) hours of work for the week beginning with the anticipated date of need, unless the employer has amended the date of need by notifying the local employment service office at least 10 working days prior to the original date of need. If the employer fails to notify the order-holding office, then employer shall pay an eligible worker referred through the interstate clearance system the hourly rate mentioned in section 11, for the first week, starting with the original anticipated date of need. The employer may require the worker to perform alternative work if the guarantee cited in this section is invoked. If the worker fails to notify the order-holding office of his continuing interest in the job no sooner than nine working days and no later than five working days before the date of need, the worker will be disqualified from the above-mentioned assurance. Alternative work will be general labor and maintenance activities including, cleaning/stacking greenhouse supplies, cleaning and maintaining migrant housing, pulling weeds, fence mending and the repair and maintenance of greenhouse buildings and equipment.

F). The Employer will furnish to the worker, on or before each payday one or more written statements showing the worker's total earnings for the pay period, his hourly rate or piece rate (if applicable); the hours of work which have been offered to the worker, the total hours actually worked by the worker, an itemization of all deductions made from the worker's wages; the worker's net pay; the employer's name, address and IRS identification number.

12. Transportation: In accordance with the regulations found at 20 CFR 655.104(h)(1), (2), and (3) the following paragraphs under section 17 are the terms and conditions, in their entirety, related to the transportation benefit and related subsistence benefit, when applicable, provided under this clearance order.

The Employer will offer transportation to and from the daily work site at no cost to the workers entitled to the housing benefit. The use of this daily transportation by eligible workers is voluntary; no worker is required as a condition of employment to utilize the daily transportation to the worksite offered by the employer. Employer will provide free transportation to eligible workers from the housing site to the worksite and return. Workers are always free to choose their own means of transportation at their own expense.

The following paragraphs related to inbound and outbound transportation pertain only to workers who are not within commuting distance and cannot return to their place of residence the same day and are, therefore, eligible for the benefit.

The Employer will not advance transportation and subsistence costs to the place of employment for any worker.

For US workers eligible for the inbound transportation benefit, the Employer will reimburse US workers who complete 50 percent of the work contract period and who are beyond commuting distance the reasonable cost of transportation and subsistence from the place from which the worker has departed to the employer's place of employment. The amount of the reimbursement for transportation cost will be the worker's actual transportation cost from the place from which the worker has departed to the employer's place of employment, and by regulation is not required to exceed the most economical and reasonable common carrier transportation cost for the distance involved. For eligible foreign (H-2A) workers coming from outside the United States, this reimbursement benefit basis is the place from which the worker departed is the place of recruitment which DOL has interpreted in the regulations to mean the appropriate US consulate or port of entry. All other criteria for this benefit are identical, as described in this paragraph, for foreign and domestic workers. The employer reserves the right to arrange charter or other transportation to assure the lowest available inbound transportation cost. Such inbound transportation will be at the worker's expense. Workers who do not avail themselves of such transportation, when available, will be reimbursed only the per worker cost of the employer-arranged transportation.

The employer will reimburse workers' costs of inbound transportation and subsistence to the extent required by the H-2A regulations not later than the date on which the worker has completed 50 percent of the period of employment beginning on the first day the worker is at the place of employment and available for work and the ending date of employment set forth in Item 6. The employer will provide or pay for workers' return transportation and subsistence to the extent required by the H-2A regulations for workers who complete the period of employment set forth in Item 6 or whose services are no longer required by the employer, whichever occurs first. Reimbursement of inbound and return transportation will only be provided to workers upon agreeable completion of the work agreement except when the worker will not be returning to the place of recruitment, due to subsequent employment with another employer who does not agree to pay such costs, in which case the employer only pays for the transportation and subsistence to the next job.

For US workers who complete the work contract and are eligible for the outbound transportation benefit, the Employer will provide or pay for the worker's reasonable cost of return transportation and subsistence from the place of employment to the place from which the worker departed to work for the employer, except when the worker will not be returning to the place of recruitment due to subsequent employment with another employer. If the subsequent employer has not agreed to provide or pay for the worker's transportation to the subsequent place of employment, the Employer will provide or pay for the transportation and subsistence to the subsequent place of employment in lieu of providing or paying for such expenses from the place of employment to the place from which the worker departed to work for the employer. If the subsequent employer has agreed to provide or pay for the worker's transportation and subsistence to the subsequent place of employment the Employer will not provide or pay for such expenses. For foreign (H-2A) workers who came to work from outside the United States, this outbound transportation benefit basis is the place from which the worker has departed will be considered to be the appropriate US consulate or port of entry as interpreted by DOL in the regulations. All other criteria for this benefit are identical, as described in this paragraph, for foreign and domestic workers. The Employer reserves the right to arrange charter or other return transportation. Workers eligible for this benefit who do not wish to avail themselves of employer arranged return transportation would be provided their outbound transportation and subsistence through checks. In those circumstances, the grower will distribute the checks as soon as all work is completed, as determined by the employer, and the worker is ready to depart. Workers may select any means of transportation home they choose, however, the reimbursement is limited to the most economical and reasonable common carrier transportation cost for the distance involved. Workers who arrange their own transportation understand they assume all liability and hold harmless the employer for any damages, injuries, and personal or property losses.

The employer will not reimburse, pay for or provide transportation and subsistence to a worker who does not provide documentation of identity and employment eligibility required to complete INS Form I-9, or who has knowledge at the place of recruitment that he can not perform the duties of the job as described in this job order, or who abandons his employment, or who is discharged for lawful job related reasons. The Employer will provide or pay for transportation and subsistence under this agreement if the worker is terminated because of work related injury and is so certified by a doctor acceptable to the Employer before leaving the place of employment, or is terminated because of an Act of God which makes fulfillment of the work contract impossible, as provided in paragraph 9C, or if the worker is displaced by a U.S. worker under the 30 day rule in 20 CFR 655.102(f)(3)(i).

Daily subsistence reimbursement will be paid to workers who are eligible for reimbursement of transportation costs in accordance with the regulations at 20 CFR 655.104(h)(1), which refers to 20 CFR 655.104(g) and is governed by 20 CFR 655.114(a), which is capped at $9.90 per day for 3 meals under the regulation.

Other Conditions of Employment:

A). Termination: Employer may terminate the worker for lawful job-related reasons and so notify the Job Service local office if the worker: a) refuses without justified cause to perform work for which the worker was recruited and hired, b) commit serious act(s) of misconduct or serious or repeated violation(s) of the assigned grower's work rules; the Employer may make and post work rules which shall apply to this employment; the worker shall abide by such rules (a copy of Work Rules is attached) c) fails after completing the training period to perform the work as specified in Item 11 and Attachment, or d) malingers or otherwise refused without justified cause to perform as directed the work for which the Worker was recruited and hired; e) provides other lawful job-related reason(s) for termination of employment f) abandons this employment; two consecutive scheduled working days of unexcused absence shall be an abandonment of employment; employees must notify the assigned Grower and secure permission for necessary absences g) falsifying identification, personnel, medical, production or other work related records h) fails or refuses to take random drug test for all employees i) commits acts of insubordination. Reason beyond employer's control" includes termination of workers, if he not a U.S. worker because a U.S. worker makes himself available for the job under DOL's 30 day rule. Workers must notify the employer prior to voluntarily terminating their employment. All wages due will be forwarded to the last known address for Workers that leave without providing notice. It is imperative that workers provide a complete and accurate address to the employer no later than the first day of employment. This employer has a no complete, no rehire policy. Termination for lawful job related reasons before the specified ending date listed in this application will disqualify the employee from future employment opportunities with this employer. Workers who abandon their employment without notice during the period covered by this work agreement will be disqualified from future employment opportunities with this employer. Voluntary resignation before the specified ending date listed in this application may disqualify the employee from future employment opportunities with this employer. For workers who resign their employment voluntarily, the employer will consider and evaluate special circumstances and hardship cases on a case-by-case basis. Employees, without exception, are required to notify appropriate supervisory staff prior to voluntarily terminating their employment to be considered and eligible for exemption to the no complete - no rehire policy.

Employer's proof of insurance coverage will be provided to the Regional Administrator before certification is granted. All workers must report all injuries and illnesses to their employer.
