RECEIVED
DEC 01 2011

BY: .....

The employer guarantees to offer the worker employment for at least three-fourths (3/4) of the total hours listed in Item 10, excluding Federal holidays, beginning with the first workday after the arrival of the worker at the place of employment and continuing through the ending date listed three-fourths (3/4) of the hours during the employment period and any extensions. The 3/4 guarantee will be abide by the regulations set forth at 20CFR 655.122(i)(1). The employer shall pay the worker the amount that the worker would have earned had the worker in fact, worked the guaranteed number of hours.

If before the work ending date specified in Item 9, the services of the worker are no longer needed for reasons beyond the control of the employer due to fire, flood, hail, frost, drought, or other Acts of God which makes the fulfillment of the employment period impossible, the employer may terminate the employment. In the event of such termination the three-fourths (3/4) guarantee will end on the date of termination. In such cases, the employer will make efforts to cover the cost of transportation and subsistence to the job regardless of whether fifty percent (50%) of the contract has expired. If no suitable and comparable work can be arranged, the employer will pay the cost of transportation and subsistence to return the worker to the place of recruitment.

The three-fourths (3/4) guarantee shall be void if the worker voluntarily abandons the employment before the employment period ends or if the worker is terminated for cause.

The employer will offer (but not require) the worker, referred through the Agricultural Recruitment System, thirty-five (35) hours of work at the prevailing wage rate or AEW, whichever notices the order holding office of the Kentucky Department of Employment Services of a change in the anticipated date of need at least 10 working days prior to the date of need. If the employer fails to notify the order holding office, the eligible worker will be paid the specified rate, or hourly piece rate guarantee, for the first full week's services without regard to the actual hours worked or activity which the worker was employed for the week. A worker who fails to notice the nearest Job Service office no sooner than nine (9) working days and no later than five (5) working days prior to the anticipated date of need of their intentions to fill the job for which they were recruited, will be disqualified from the first week's wage guarantee stated above.

The employer may offer (but not require alternative work during the employment period.) Alternative work may only be required if the first week wage guarantee list in 20 CFR 653.501 is invoked.

The employer will provide worker's compensation insurance, at no cost to the worker, covering injury and disease arising out of, and in the course of, the worker's employment.

ITEM 12 – Transportation

The employer will agree to reimburse the worker for the reasonable cost of transportation and subsistence, as required in 20 CFR 655.122(h)(1), from the worker's place of recruitment to the place of employment once the worker has completed fifty percent (50%) of employment stated in Item 5. The employer will provide or pay the cost of return transportation and subsistence to the place of recruitment, except when the worker is not returning to the place of recruitment and is going to subsequent employment with an employer who is providing transportation to that job. If a subsequent employer is not bearing the cost of transportation then the employer listed in Item 4 agrees to pay for that transportation.

Travel and subsistence must be paid by employer. Employer is required to reimburse workers for their transportation and subsistence expenses in the amount of $10.73 per diem as the minimum amount if the worker is unable to provide receipts and $46.00 as the maximum amount if the worker is able to provide receipt. Daily transportation from the housing site to the work site will be provided by the employer at no cost to the workers.

OTHER CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

Workers must possess sufficient documentation required for the employer to complete the employment eligibility verification requirement of the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.

INVOLUNTARY TERMINATION

The employer may terminate the worker for lawful, job related reasons. In the event of such termination the employer will notify the local office of the Department of Employment Services immediately by phone and follow such notification in writing and will notify the DOL, USCIS and the issuing consulate.

MEDICAL TERMINATION

In the event of termination of a worker for medical reasons occurring after the worker has been employed or occurring as a result of employment, the employer agrees to pay transportation and subsistence costs for the worker's travel to the place of employment and their return to the place of recruitment.

EXTENSIONS OF THE JOB ORDER

No extensions of this order will relieve the employer of his/her obligations to pay wages that have already been earned, transportation costs that have already been, or shall be, incurred or guarantees stated in this order.

OUTREACH WORKERS

The employer will allow outreach workers of the Department for Employment Service, reasonable access to all workers employed under this order pursuant to 20 CFR 653.107 and 20 CFR 653.501.

EMPLOYER NOTIFICATION OF THE EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

The employer will expeditiously notify the local office of the Department of Employment Service in writing of any changes in the terms and conditions or anticipated dates of need in this order.

ASSURANCES

The employer agrees to abide by the regulations at 20 CFR 655.135, Assurances and 20 CFR 653.501.

EFFORTS TO RECRUIT U.S. WORKERS AND THE RESULTS

The employer agrees to advertise the job opportunities in the local newspaper. The employer also agrees to contact local feed mills and temporary help agencies to locate adequate help before bringing in migrant workers. The employer agrees to interview any interested and available applicant from such provided lists. The employer also agrees to recruit by the usual word of mouth. The employer will contact the local extension service, the farming agencies, farm worker service organizations and farm work advocacy groups, such as Kentucky Farm workers Program, in the region for potential workers.

Employer agrees to interview all interested U.S. workers referred by the State Employment Service and all interested applicants who apply directly.
